The Chicago Tribune.

VOL. 28. CHICAGO, WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 1870. NO. 124.

The Franco-Prussian War.

Great Uneasiness Caused in France by the Surrender of Metz.

General Boyer, Bazaine's Aide, Comes Out in Defense of His Superior.

Probable Failure of all Recent Peace Negotiations.

Prussian Coast Cities Again Threatened by a French Fleet.

Rumored Offensive and Defensive Alliance Between Russia and Prussia.

FRANCE.

Latest Intelligence from Paris.

London, Nov. 1.—Dispatches to the undersigned have been received here from Paris to the effect, "No city was ever more filled with vague rumors of all kinds. Food supply was regularly given to the people, and peace. The loss of Metz produced a profound impression. Every one feels that the fall of that fortress releases the whole German army for operations elsewhere. Every family in Paris has relatives in the army, and anxiously awaits their movements. The accuracy of the dispatches published by the Paris papers is guaranteed by the Government."

Advices from London report that the proclamation of the Provisional Government will be issued from Tours to-day. The city was not yet ready to issue it from Paris. The Government will go to Germany on the small determinants. This would be a great blow to the Empire, and would be followed by the fall of the dynasty.

THE PEACE MOVEMENT.

London, Nov. 1.—The Times has a telegram from Paris on Sunday, of the 30, by way of York. The general impression at London is that, owing to the surrender of Metz, there is no hope of peace. The Times, however, says that the Government of Tours is not averse to peace, and that Jules Favre has left Paris for the purpose of negotiating terms with Bismarck. The Times says that the Government of Tours will not agree to the cession of territory, but will offer a money indemnity.

London, Nov. 1.—The Paris correspondent of the Times says that Jules Favre left Paris on Sunday, and

THE LEGISLATURE.

Political Complexion of the Two Houses.

Probable Work of the Session.

Senatorial Contest.

Legislative Gossip.

WARD OFFICERS.

THE LAW CO

Miscellaneous Business

Testerday.

Applications for

United States Circ

YESTER

Charles V. Hawley, a

Alfred Crane, Jr., were

Circuit Co

The Judges of the Cir

Probate Co

Judge Jameson presi

of bankrupt, assistant

Commissioner Flury

day. In the forenoon

and in the afternoon

Circuit Co

Judge Blodgett presi

Andrew J. Baker, for

Justice Moran's Co

Justice Moran presi

Applications for

Criminal Court.

Assistant Prosecutor Ba

Criminal Court, which

Justice Rogers presi

Criminal Court.

Criminal Court Prose

Criminal Court.

Criminal Court Prose

Criminal Court.

Criminal Court Prose

EASTMAN

CITY POLITICS.

Call for a Special Farwell Hall Meeting.

The Democracy at Turner Hall.

Charges on the Republican Ticket—Fourth Ward Aldermen.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Short School Lots Wanted—Partial Curtailment—Dwellings.

THE CITY IN BRIEF.

Chinese Princes.

Board of Health.

Coroner's Office.

Municipal.

Police.

Sale of Dwelling House.

Fatal Accident.

Advice to the Ladies.

Sale of Dwelling House.

Fatalities.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Short School Lots Wanted—Partial Curtailment—Dwellings.

THE CITY IN BRIEF.

Chinese Princes.

Board of Health.

Coroner's Office.

Municipal.

Police.

Sale of Dwelling House.

Fatal Accident.

Advice to the Ladies.

Sale of Dwelling House.

Fatalities.

FOREIGN.

The Franco-German War.

Preliminary Arrangement in the Interest of Peace.

An Armistice for Twenty-five Days Agreed Upon.

The News the Signal for Rioting in Paris.

Continued Disorders at Marseilles.

The New Government Administrator Wounded by a Pistol Shot.

Outline of Napoleon's Pamphlet on the Campaign of 1870.

His Explanation as to the Cause of the French Disasters.

PEACE MOVEMENT.

FRANCE.

BUSINESS CHANCES.

PARTNERS WANTED.

MISCELLANEOUS.

FOR SALE.

PERSONAL.